Red Hot and Holy: A Heretic's Love Story by Sera Beak, Paperback | Barnes & Noble®

Very few have left me staring at my screen for as long as Sera Beak's new book Red Hot & Holy: A Heretic's Love Story (Sounds True,).

What if love's very nature was to consume and call us home? What if there is nothing more irreverently sexy and sacred than your soul aflame? Meet red hot.

Patricia Albere and author, Sera Beak are two women from different generations who have relentlessly pursued (and been pursued).

I also really liked reading about the divine prostitute archetype. There are no discussion topics on this book. She gives talks, private sessions, and retreats focused on the radical reality of the Soul and its messy, beautiful love affair with being human.

It is truly cataclysmic and magnificently dangerous! From the innocence of Jenny Lawson. Two expressions of her work include an ever-expanding community of global pioneers devoted to seeding and facilitating the emergence of this new paradigm. Then decide if you are intrigued by her life story enough to read this one. Page caused me to immediately go to the beginning and devour the entire book. I read this book without putting it .
