Then, and not till then, will you appreciate the divine simplicity and breadth of the great command to walk worthy of God, and the divine tenderness and power of the motive which enforces it, and prints it on yielding and obedient hearts, even the dying love and Cross of His Son. The new life in Christ involves a mental reorientation, a new way of thinking, not simply something new to think .

The unity already exists. For Mother, pain was a frequent companion, as was sorrow. We seek to encourage one another in the faith speaking words that edify and build us up in Christ, rather than disparage and tear each other. Jesus is the cornerstone for that foundation. When we live as believers out to live and manifest the fruits of the Spirit, then we will have unity with one another and we will be at peace with one .

Because they provide unbelievers with the best reason why they should not turn their backs on Christ. King James translation captures the sense of the third virtue best.
