He noted that even the more liberal countries were cracking down on public gatherings, the press, and political opposition groups. In George H. W. Bush nearly doubled the size of the United States presence in the Persian Gulf. We will not win. Discharged from the Navy as a lieutenant junior grade, Mr. Bush hit his head bailing out, he said, but landed safely in the ocean. By his own account the loss had left him dispirited and feeling humiliated. The coalition made good on the threat.
