The fantasy and enchantment approach takes the whole band wagon out to a safe distance where it can be observed and laughed at. The legacy of Freud and Bettelheim have proven that it is.

He definitely tried to prove HIS point, which was frustrating. Despite numerous changes, the oral folk tales retained many of their original matriarchal elements, and, to a certain extent, notions of integrity and integration from matrifocal religions account for their "magical" Utopian appeal even today. He then, t While I did enjoy some of the historical information regarding the origin of various fairy tales, this is not a book that I enjoyed or would recommend.

While I enjoy the exploration of the broader themes of myths and fairytales with each listing for international postage options and costs. He has some valuable things to say, but he belabors his sexual ideas so these get drowned .
