Some would call them impractical, or even bizarre - and I couldn't agree. Reflections of My Heart we look at our reflection, it is one of the rare times that we get to see what others see. This is not a post I've written to boast of my faith, but rather to share how God has provided for me in spite of my lack of it. LillenaratedititwasamazingNov13, I believed and still do that God called me to apply for the internship this fall, and I believe that He is the One who opened the door for me to get accepted for that opportunity.
