The owner of San Pellegrino was a murky type, mixed up with fascism and I always had the impression he was trying to create alibis that would serve him later ... I do not know if I was imagining this, but I think he thought helping some Jews might turn to his advantage after the war. The installations and sculptures at OPEN interrupt the ordinary urban context, they cause a short-circuit in the observer, that effect of alienation that forces us to keep on looking, to notice the details, to wonder about the secret substance that enables us to shake off the habit of the reality that surrounds us and leads us into an absolutely new universe, the one that lives inside us through the art created outside. Twenty years of sculptures, installations, happenings and performances Niente stoffe leggere (Italian Edition) witness to how Niente stoffe leggere (Italian Edition) can break into the outside environment to attract onlookers, capturing their eyes and cheering their souls.

The flags at OPEN were developed following the rules of classical image composition. The return to Lido, for this twentieth-anniversary edition, is a privilege that enables us to admire an impressive international event in the field of contemporary artistic production. They were headed to Switzerland, led by a group of the many smugglers who profited by transporting Jews. And to dreaming. Emilio Vedova e Pierre Restany. Thank you. I did not even see the connection to the Subura which was part of the working class district of ancient Rome. The public programs that might have taught Italian Americans the value of their own culture and subsequently fortified future generations, the public programs that would have challenged media-made impressions, were never created.
