I was surprised that someone took the task of converting Anne Frank's story into a 5 point story in my book! Saplings from the tree were cut and are being planted around the world, 11 of which are or will be ceremoniously planted in the United States. The illustrations went along with the text as well because whenever they were talking about a main topic there would be a picture of it.

If I found it quite interesting to learn about all the saplings grown from the chestnut tree, it would be nice to know if there's an "Anne Frank" Chestnut Tree planted near me. Auntie Sanyu builds a sukkah in her Ugandan garden.
