A long-established expression among sailors uses the term "a Jonah" as meaning a person either a sailor or a passenger whose presence on The Ancient Rime of Jonah brings bad luck and endangers the ship. Ordered by God to go to the city of Nineveh to prophesy against it "for their great wickedness is come up before me" [1] Jonah seeks instead to flee from "the presence of the Lord" by going to Jaffa and sailing to Tarshish.
