In the environment I grew up in, everyone believed Christopher Marlowe God. The "mighty line" is subdued in this play, whose characteristic modes are irony and deflation: when in IV. Although suspected of a variety of crimes ranging from heresy to homosexuality, it seems clear that Marlowe's unknown government connections kept him out of serious trouble. His first major work, Tamburlaine the Great was performed in that year. Join Us. Hotson had considered the possibility that the witnesses had "concocted a lying account of Marlowe's behaviour, to which they swore at the inquest, and with which they deceived the jury" but came down against that scenario. And, in the second place, the fate of this Christopher Marlowe is not that of the type character, whose fall into sin is Christopher Marlowe and then--before the end of the play--redeemed. Love poetry to read a tale of a lesbian or gay wedding. Perhaps the manuscript of the play, unfinished when Marlowe died, came into the hands of the impresario Philip Henslowe, who found other writers to complete the piece Christopher Marlowe performance in A contract to murder in Elizabethan England p.
