The Lay of the Land is astonishing in its own right and a magnificent expansion of one of the most celebrated chronicles of our time. So The Lay of the Land is about to celebrate Thanksgiving, at his shore house with his Harvard-educated daughter and her new love interest, Thom, and his son Paul and his one-handed girlfriend who have driven in from Kansas City. The modern definitions for 'lay' or 'lie' for British English do not include the meaning needed for this idiom, but must have at some point.
