Rather than behaving arrogantly like the wicked, David prostrated himself before the Lord in worship. Forgive me for not wanting to pray. Your gift is tax-deductible as allowed by law.

I believe that is exactly what the Model Prayer is. And, it happen today. David looks up to God in the morning, David chooses God in the morning, and David is victorious in God in the morning and all day! Verse 8 : David continues his lament and pleads for God to intervene in his situation. You, O Lord, will bless the righteous; with favor You will surround him : This is the greatest blessing of all - the favor of God.

Psalm 5 moves in contrasts between the righteous request of David and the wicked know this is the case, but how quickly we forget the good that God can do for us.
