Yes, that approach continues to be effective when selling to extremely unsophisticated people or to distracted, ice-cold traffic from something like a pay-per-click campaign but for most topics and niches, there are better options. Of course, business savvy is always a plus when it comes to turning your dreams into reality.

Her job was just to give them the information, right? To counter the often negative teaching tools to sell, Sharon Parker has written a book detailing how to sell with soul. When you're listen to the calling of your heart and soul and what you do is alignment with your truth, amazing things start to happen naturally.
