But God wanted the angels to have a far different conclusion. There are lies and trust and who is to judge right and wrong of those lies.

It just got way too wordy and lengthy and I found my interest waning in those paragraphs. Tony, with his exceptionally void eyes reminded me of Heathcliff and his eyes, dark windows to the soul. There are probably other reviews floating around Goodreads which have addressed these issues. Stay awake and pay attention. Amber will comment on Chloe's shirt, asking her what she sees in the Rorschach a fabulous writer can conjure up emotions this intense. Thank GOD!!!!
